

16 December 1983

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence

FROM: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

I would like to remind you of the brilliant idea I had of having analysts send out intel reports based on what they gleaned from their wanderings overseas. While it does not have to be an official report, they can use the vehicle of their trip reports and circulate it not only to interested parties in the Agency but also throughout the Intelligence Community. In other words, share the knowledge.

[Redacted Signature Box]

John N. McMahon

STAT

